With more than 60 years' experience, Novenco is among the world leaders in supplying ventilation systems.

In 1995, Novenco launched the world's first jet fan based car park ventilation system. Over the years, Novenco has established a unique expertise in car park ventilation.

Today, Novenco continues to be a market leader in developing and manufacturing ventilation systems that are marketed and distributed world-wide through subsidiaries and representatives.

The Novenco Group currently consists of the parent company in Denmark and subsidiaries in The Netherlands, Norway and the UK. We also have offices in Germany, Sweden, Italy, China and Singapore.
